On behalf of the Chinese Language Club, I would like to convey our sincere appreciation to you and [Redacted] for a most informative and enjoyable visit to your headquarters on 17 April 1981. Your explanation of the organization and functions of CIA clarified cadet understanding of multi-faceted roles. We hope you will pass on our thanks to [Redacted] who provided a wealth of knowledge at an appropriate level for the cadets. Such visits greatly expand cadet knowledge and interest in language and area studies of China as well as the U.S. intelligence community.

We all hope that next year we again will be allowed to benefit from a visit to CIA. Thank you very much.

Respectfully,
